SYNOPSIS

What's the secret ingredient of happiness?

Late seventies. A terrible car accident leaves Leonor orphan and under her uncles' care.

All seems well, they're the perfect family, but there is something strange about their behavior that arouses the suspicions of the girl.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A wonderful home. A perfect family. Takeaway.

Inheritances are the cause of many clashes between families, from harassment to physical violence and, in some cases, have even led to murder.

Greed and revenge are two very intense and powerful human feelings. In Familia Feliz (Happy Family), they are developed to the limit in a drama with hints of thriller and black humor.

The wicked uncles (Rebeca and Tomás) decided to kill their family for their goods, thus destroying of their niece's innocence, who has to grow up quickly to discover that her mother's sister and her husband have been the cause of the accident that killed his parents, her family.

But Leonor is not a problem. No one expected that she would survive, but it is a girl... There are still years to meet adulthood and her uncles should worry about inheritance again. She's not threat... for now.

Everybody hate each other and everyone wants freedom. Adults live thinking about how to destroy the other, ending the loose end, and the girl goes into the background. This is how she can develop her escape plan, get a way out with a harmless cakes that everyone would have wanted to try. The revenge's sweets.

DIRECTION STATEMENT

The end of innocence

The story focuses on the wishes of the main characters, they all yearn for freedom.

While the goal of Rebeca and Tomás focuses on the economic, Leonor is spiritual. She feels kidnapped by their parents murderers, monsters pretending to be a perfect family.

Leonor goes of the duel to the most extreme hatred, and has a major advantage: no one notices it. Nobody knows she saw the man who broke the car brakes her parents, nobody knows that she has tied ropes, which she has lost her innocence forever and has awakened in her a thirst for blood and death impossible to placate until see fulfilled her need for vengeance and freedom..

Rebeca and Tomás know that only one can out alive their beloved home. Sooner or later, Leonor will be dangerously closer to adulthood and they'll have to get rid of her, but one of them must also die without delay. The deaths must be staggered, without arousing suspicion, like the sad accident in question. Without noise, with poison.

ART DIRECTION

For technicians and actors, it's essential conceptualize and propose ideas, feelings and images that evoke the fiction that they will create.

Not just as a starting point to develop their work, but also as a good polling with the rest of the crew, providing coherence and communication.

CHARACTERIZATION

Costumes, personality traits, symbols and immediate impact of the main characters.
